

Week 8 of Challenge #3 For the week of June 21 – June 25

⇒ This is our final week of Challenge #3 40 Days of Prayer. We will take a 2 week break and begin challenge #4 on July 12 – September 3, 2021. We will continue to use the same book: Praying the Names of Jesus by Ann Spangler focusing on chapters 9 – 16 for 8 weeks. So, hang on to your book. Put it up in a safe place. And we will carry on soon.

PRINCE OF PEACE

2015 WAS AN UNFORGETTABLE YEAR! Jeff, my husband, and I celebrated 30 years of marriage. Our celebratory trip was visiting the Holy Lands. A trip I'll never forget. To walk where Jesus walked. To glide the waters of the Sea of Galilee where Jesus fished. To see the places where Jesus taught. To be baptized in the Jordan River. To know that Jesus, our Prince of Peace literally walked where we were walking and ministering where we were standing, was beyond amazing. Peace, the Peace of Christ that transcends our understanding walked on earth and allows His peace to dwell in us.

2016 WAS AN UNFORGETTABLE YEAR! Our youngest daughter got married and our oldest daughter graduated from college and moved to another state to begin her career leaving my husband and I in the "empty nest" season of life.

2017 WAS AN UNFORGETTABLE YEAR! Our oldest daughter got married, we sold our dream home, bought a RV, left our jobs to hit the road developing the ministry approach for Evangelism Explosion's newest ministry called: Equip America! It wasn't on the bucket list. It wasn't on the want to do list! It wasn't in the "plan!" But it was God's plan.

2018-2020 WERE UNFORGETTABLE YEARS! On the road developing the EQUIP AMERICA Strategy and all was going well...then Covid-19 hit. A year later we find ourselves back "home" and things are changing yet again. A new role in EE, a new vision God birthed to my husband one night in a dream bringing about a new season for Equip America known as Equip America 2.0. A transition from a mobile life of campgrounds and church parking lots to a more normal structured life like the one we knew for so many years but now seems quite foreign. I wish I could testify to having been completely resting in the arms of Sar Shalom, my Prince of Peace, through all of these unforgettable moments of the past five years (I've only mentioned the last five but there are many more prior to 2015) fulling relying on Him as my source of all peace. If I had rested more fully in the arms of the God of Peace, I could have lived life more peaceably.

Author, Paul David Tripp says this about Peace. “Peace came. Peace lived. Peace died. Peace rose again. Peace reigns on your behalf. Peace indwells you by the Spirit. Peace graces you with everything you need. Peace convicts, forgives, delivers you. Peace will finish his work in you. Peace will welcome you into glory, where Peace will live with you in peace and righteousness forever. Peace isn’t faded dream. No, Peace is real. Peace is a person, and his name is Jesus.” When we fully rely on Christ our Peace we are at peace.

Our new life in Christ Jesus, when we become a follower, results in a new nature. We take off the “old man” and put on the “new man.” We become His and clothed in His righteousness. We choose to wear His wardrobe. Think about this...A costume is worn to play a part for appearance sake, putting on and taking off depending on the performance. Costumes don’t reflect the person behind the costume. When we choose Christ, we choose His wardrobe (His righteousness) which reflects our new identity in Christ, God’s character and nature. The outer shell grows in unison with the inner shell and they become one in Him. We are to be like Him. Col. 3: 15-17 says, “so, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline. Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you. And regardless of what else you put on, wear love. It’s your basic, all-purpose garment. Never be without it.” When we begin to be clothed entirely by His wardrobe, Christ’s peace dwells fully in us. Peace is part of the wardrobe that we wear. Peace, Peace God’s Peace. Our Prince of Peace. Let Him be Your Peace.

Daily reflections as we consider our Prince of Peace:

Monday: Read James 5:16 today. Who is someone that needs a word of peace, joy, love or forgiveness from you? Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied in Luke 1:67. Ask the Holy Spirit to fill you afresh and anew today so that you can proclaim the words of the Lord to encourage that person.

Tuesday: Read and consider Colossians 3:12-15 again. How well are you clothed in the deeds of the flesh or the character of Christ? Are you still trying to wear both at the same time? What are you wearing that you need to take off and what do you need to put on to fully reflect the identity of Christ? Pray the name of Jesus, our Prince of Peace asking Him to help you fully replace the old garment with the new garment and walk in His peace.

Wednesday: Read Philippians 4:6-9. Does worry consume your life? Meditate on God’s perfect peace in this scripture. Ask God to cause the worry to cease and the peace to increase.

Thursday: Read Romans 16:20 today. Do you sometimes wonder if you’ll ever find peace in some of your life’s circumstances? Hear the Apostle Paul’s encouragement for you today. Pray this scripture as a prayer to the Prince of Peace.

Friday: Read Isaiah 26:3 and meditate on God’s purposes found in this scripture. Which problems in your life do you have the most problem seeing through? Memorize this scripture so that every time you see an area of distrust you claim this promise in prayer to the Prince of Peace.

Adoration: we worship You God for WHO You are not just for WHAT You do for us!

Lord, my God, You, are God in the heavens above and in the earth below! (Joshua 2:11)

You stretch out the north over empty space; You suspend the earth on nothing. (Job 26:7)

You made the Pleiades and Orion

And turn deep darkness into morning

And darken day into night.

You call for the waters of the sea

And pour them out over the face of the earth –

The Lord is Your name. (Amos 5:8)

- Elohim, You, our God, Mighty Creator, created the heavens and the earth. All things came into being through You. Praises to You are Mighty Creator.
- God, You, amaze us for great are You Lord and greatly to be praised.
- We love You Lord for always being available to us. Anytime we want to talk to You, 24/7, you are just longing to hear from us. Thank you for being attentive to our voice of supplications. We adore you availability, Lord.
- Father, we love how active You are in every detail of our lives. Your word says that You know when we sit and when we rise. You perceive my thoughts from afar. Every moment of every day You are actively involved.
- Lord, we worship you, the Prince of Peace acknowledging that peace comes from living under your rule and following your examples.
- King of Kings, we worship You because You are our perfect Ruler.
- Prince of Peace, we adore You for being our source of all peace. And we praise You for showing us the path to peace.
- Lamb of God, we praise You for your strong love and tender mercy.
- Lord of Lords, we worship You for Your promised redemption.
- Physician, we glorify Your healing compassion and for placing Yourself in the midst of our struggles and hurts.
- Bread of Life, we cry out our tribute to You who is able to take care of all our needs, physical and spiritual, mental and emotional.
- Child, who has been given the names Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace we praise You for keeping Your promises to us.

- Light of the World, You, bring light to the darkness, your plan for the world has been unswerving, and we praise You for shining Your light into our lives giving us an unending life with God.

Pause to express your thoughts of praise and worship.

Confession: we now humbly admit our sins and failures as a people, as a church and as a nation!

My Lord, let Your power be great, just as You have spoken, saying, “The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression.” (Numbers 14:17-18)

You, Lord my God, are gracious and compassionate, and You will not turn Your face from me if I return to You. (2 Corinthians 30:9)

- As a nation, we have become puzzled with temporal things; failing to set our affections on things above; our gaze has been altered and we are no longer focused on You; we are given over to the amusements of this world and the crazy activities of an earthly perspective; please forgive us!
- Forgive us for our dishonor of You and Your name; we have sin in our hearts and forget to speak Your name, Lord. Forgive our words of dishonor, rebellion, and disobedience.
- O Lord, we have allowed Satan to bind and enslave us with our own passions. Jesus, You died to set us free from the bondage of sin; forgive us for giving in to our fleshly passions and sinful addictions; set us free and make us slaves of You, Jesus!

Confess these sins to God:

- Personal patterns of sin.
- Your inability to reflect on Christ’s presence without his grace.
- Failures that disfigure the image of God in you.
- Any failure to value God’s Word enough to read it regularly.
- Any tendencies to settle for less than what Jesus has to offer you.
- Any tendencies to live as though this world is all there is.
- Any tendencies to mistrust God because of past disappointments.
- Any tendencies to identify yourself so closely with your sin that you have difficulty accepting God’s forgiveness.

Ask the Spirit to search your heart and reveal any areas of unconfessed sin. Acknowledge these to the Lord and thank Him for His forgiveness.

Thanksgiving – Pause to offer your own expressions of thanksgiving.
